

Surraine Thomas

Surraine Thomas is currently the Albany Housing Commissioner for families. Along side with her husband Richard Thomas, four daughters, one son and her grandson. Surraine continues to live in Albany Housing.

Ms. Thomas continues to be active in her community and continues to volunteer for various activities such as : The Arbor Hill and South End Revitalization Committee, The new Ida Yarbrough Tenant Association and now the Sisters and Action.

During her term as Commissioner, she continues to intricately be involved in securing tens of thousands of dollars, working alongside the other Board of Commissioners. As a result it continues to provide programs that would enhance the quality of life in Section 8 and Public Housing. Surraine has continued to wholly be committed to the betterment of all residents and to make sure that each policy governing the operation of AHA is created consistent with a sense of fairness toward Resident in Section 8 and Public Housing tenants.

Surraine continues to do a great job, and therefore is asking for the support of the residents to continue the job started six years ago on the AHA Boad of Commissioner. Surraine knows the concerns facing the families living on Section 8 and in Public Housing.

Surraine Thomas will continue to advocate on behalf of all Tenants, listen to your concerns, and give you a reasoned voice.
