

Black History Month Film Series
Every Thursday

Starting February 6th through March 13th

Time: 5:30 pm

Location: 200 South Pearl Street, Albany NY

Albany Housing Community Room

The Center
for Law and Justice

Film Schedule

Theme: “Black Resistance in America”

Thursday, February 6: Twelve Years a Slave-Solomon Northup’s Odyssey (Gordon Parks, 1984)

Thursday, February 13: Django Unchained (Quentin Tarantino, 2012)

Thursday, February 20: Discussion of Twelve Years a Slave & Django

Discussant -Dr. Timothy Sams, RPI

Thursday, February 27: Rosewood (John Singleton, 1997)

Thursday, March 6: Get on the Bus (Spike Lee, 1996)

Thursday, March 13: Discussion of Rosewood & Get on the Bus

Discussant- D.Ekow King, SUNY Albany

Program is free and open to the public for youths 14 and over & adults of all ages. Free food & refreshments will be served, for additional information, contact the Center for Law & Justice at 427-8361.

Sponsored by: The Center for Law & Justice (CFLJ), The African American Cultural Center of the Capital District (AACC) & The Albany Housing Authority (AHA).