

ALBANY HISTORY FAIR

World War I • The Albany Home Front

Sunday, May 6th • 12-4 pm

FREE!

Historic Cherry Hill

523 ½ South Pearl Street, Albany

Learn the story of the Harlem Hellfighters!

Did you know ...

...that Henry Johnson was a member of the African American 369th Infantry Division—the “Harlem Hellfighters”—in WWI?

At the fair, reenactor Cliff Mealy will share the thoughts of Harlem Hellfighter Vince Taylor as he looks back at his days serving with Henry Johnson of the 369th Infantry Regiment during the war.

Exhibitions

The New York State Capitol will be at the fair with a mini-exhibition on the Harlem Hellfighters from their current show, “Their Glory Can Never Fade.”

Did you ever try virtual reality?

Experience the Cherry Hill family’s tragic World War I story through live actors and virtual reality in the historic house. “Dutch” by Krysta Dennis

What was it like in Albany during World War I?
Find out at the History Fair!

